July 19th, 2011 (LOS ANGELES)-The fourth annual Bel-Air Film Festival proudly announces its partnership with InkTip, the screenplay facilitation company.

InkTip's Pitch Networking Summit will be held July 22nd-July23rd at the Los Angeles Marriott near Burbank Airport, where writers can choose to pitch to over 300 companies, including ABC Family, Warner Bros., Anonymous Content, and Comedy Central. The Pitch Networking Summit is designed to get writers' scripts in the right hands, allowing them to get hired and reped by industry professionals who can jumpstart their careers.

Notables such as Robert McKee and Pilar Alessandra recommend the pitch summit for any writer who is serious about getting their scripts read and breaking into the entertainment industry. Alessandra will also be teaching a course at the Summit.

Bel-Air Film Festival Mission Statement:

The Bel-Air Film Festival is an independent international film festival recognized for celebrating cinema in one of Southern California's most prestigious and storied communities. The Festival attracts thousands of moviegoers each year.

The Bel-Air Film Festival promotes the appreciation and knowledge of film, and seeks to recognize the most creative films and individuals in the film industry each year. The Festival's goal is to inspire filmmakers and help provide them with the resources needed to further their knowledge
